BILATERAL MEETING: ORGANIZATION FOR ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION AND DEVELOPMENT (OECD)

Nusa Dua – The Government of Indonesia, represented by Minister of National Development Planning/Head of Bappenas Bambang Brodjonegoro and Organization for Economic Co-Operation and Development (OECD) represented by Secretary-General Angel Gurría, has just launched the OECD Review of SME and Entrepreneurship Policy in Indonesia 2018 during the 2018 International Monetary Fund-World Bank Group Annual Meetings in Bali, Indonesia, on Wednesday (10/10). The comprehensive report highlights best policies for small medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) & entrepreneurship. Shortly after the launch, both parties sit together on a fruitful bilateral meeting on how the review could benefit Indonesia, also on how the two entities could establish better cooperation in the future.

Nusa Dua – Pemerintah Indonesia, diwakili Menteri PPN/Kepala Bappenas Bambang Brodjonegoro dan Organization for Economic Co-Operation and Development (OECD), diwakili Sekretaris Jenderal Angel Gurría, telah meluncurkan OECD Review of SME and Entrepreneurship Policy in Indonesia 2018 di sela penyelenggaraan the 2018 International Monetary Fund-World Bank Group Annual Meetings di Bali, Indonesia, Rabu (10/10). Laporan komprehensif tersebut menggarisbawahi kebijakan-kebijakan terbaik untuk usaha kecil dan menengah (UKM) dan wirausahawan. Segera setelah peluncuran, kedua pihak duduk bersama dalam pertemuan dua pihak yang efektif untuk membahas bagaimana laporan tersebut dapat bermanfaat bagi Indonesia, juga tentang bagaimana dua entitas tersebut dapat bekerja sama dengan lebih baik di masa depan.
